

OAG SHOWS UP IN BIG NUMBERS FOR THE 2025 PUBLIC SERVICE MARATHON AND FUN DAY

On November 7, 2025, the Office of the Auditor-General (OAG) joined in the excitement of the Public Service Marathon and Fun Day, held at the University of Namibia's main campus.

Organised by the Office of the Prime Minister (OPM), this lively event brought together approximately 1,500 public servants to celebrate health, wellness, and camaraderie. OAG employees really got into the spirit, enthusiastically participating in both the 5km walk and the 10km run. Their dedication to fitness was evident as they moved together, enjoying the fresh air and encouraging each other along the way. Beyond the races, the day was filled with various sports and fun games, creating an atmosphere that helped strengthen workplace relationships and foster team spirit.

Ultimately, the event was more than just a day of physical activity—it was a wonderful opportunity to promote a healthier lifestyle within the public service. Participants left feeling inspired, with smiles on their faces and a renewed sense of camaraderie, grateful for a day filled with fun and friendship.
